

UNVEILING YOUR PURPOSE

AN INVITATION INTO THE JOURNEY

Expeditions of the Heart invites you on the ultimate adventure with Gary Barkalow from Ransomed Heart this fall.

Do you ever find yourself asking this question:

“I feel there is some purpose to my life – that I have something significant to contribute – but I can’t see it.”

LISTEN TO WHAT GARY BARKALOW SAYS IN RESPONSE:

EXPEDITIONS OF THE HEART
THE CORPS OF DISCOVERY

“This is the reality that most of us live in. Our purpose seems to be veiled or hidden. So we take personality test, spiritual gift indicators and career assessments. Yet they seem to help very little. Why? It’s partly because we have misunderstood what our purpose, our calling is. It’s not just about a job or the best use of our skills or education. Also our calling is fiercely opposed. We have an enemy who fears what we may become. And partly because it’s about a journey we must take with God – to become the man who is able to handle the weightiness and splendor of our life.”

This Calling Intensive with Gary will take place in the heart of West Virginia’s white water country September 18-21. We start by going down the spectacular Gauley River. You will be staying in a comfortable cabin with 3 or 4 other men.
